Annual Judicial District Report Shows Improvement

The Comptroller's office has released its annual Review of Funds Administered by Tennessee's District Attorneys General and Judicial Drug Task Forces: 1st – 31st Judicial District for the fiscal year that ended June 30, 2014.

The report shows continued improvement in the way these funds are managed across the state. Auditors had just three findings this year. By way of comparison, the FY 2012 report detailed 20 findings.

The three findings and recommendations have been reviewed with the district attorneys general and representatives of the drug task forces. The three findings were in the First Judicial District, the Third Judicial District, and the Eighth Judicial District.

"This is one of the best annual reports we have issued on Tennessee's Judicial Districts," Comptroller Justin P. Wilson said. "I would like to compliment the District Attorneys General Conference for its efforts to improve financial operations by offering training and education on these important issues."
